About Chardham Yatra

- ▶ Chardham Yatra, a sacred pilgrimage in the Himalayas, encompasses the four holy shrines of Yamunotri, Gangotri, Kedarnath, and Badrinath. It holds profound spiritual significance for Hindus, symbolizing the journey to attain moksha (liberation). Pilgrims embark on this arduous yet spiritually enriching expedition, seeking divine blessings and cleansing of sins. The pilgrimage season typically spans from April to November, allowing devotees to traverse through breathtaking landscapes and engage in rituals at each revered temple. Chardham Yatra epitomizes devotion, offering an opportunity for self-discovery and communion with the divine amidst the majestic Himalayan abodes.
