

Roma RM, Italy

Rome Colosseum Tour

Explore The Beauty of by Booking Your Tickets with Colosseum
Official Partner

Website:

www.romecolosseumtour.com

Call :

+39 3386672861

1 Introduction

If you are visiting Italy for the first time, you should add a trip to the Colosseum, a place with an amazing historical significance. You can visit the Colosseum official website to learn about the place, but visiting that place personally will offer a different experience. You can also book a private or guided Colosseum tour to make your trip more interesting, and for this, you can always take the help of Colosseum's official ticket booking partner. Here, we have listed-down some interesting information that can help you in planning your Colosseum trip. Let's have a look.

Book An Official Colosseum Tour

for Maximum Benefits

If you wish to visit the Amphitheatre's areas that are restricted to the public, you will have to book a guided Colosseum tour. With this, you will find tour guides who are licensed and knowledgeable experts and know everything about the Colosseum as well as its history. They can explain everything, from the construction of the Amphitheatre to the decline of the place. Besides, there are some other amazing benefits you can enjoy, such as:

- You will get skip-the-line tickets for all tours.
- As you will get local guides, they will definitely add an authentic flavour to your Colosseum tours.
- You can choose the tour language based on your requirements. With an official Colosseum tour service provider, you can choose from different languages, such as English, Spanish, French, German and more.
- The best part is that you will also get a free cancellation facility. That means if you are cancelling your tickets 48 hours before the scheduled time, you will get your money back.
- When you book your tour tickets with Colosseum tour official partners, you will get instant confirmation of your tickets.

3 With A Guided Tour

, You Can Visit the Colosseum Hypogeum

Even though the Hypogeum, which is two-levelled rooms, corridors and access points, may not be easily visible, they can be toured if you have booked a guided tour. There, you can find tunnels that were used by the Vestal and Emperor Virgins to enter the arena without going through the crowds.

4 Things to Keep in Mind

While Visiting on Your Own

Avoid the Busiest Season for a Hassle-Free Experience

If you ask us about the worst time to visit the Colosseum, then we would say it's during the summer. Even though the Summer in Italy feels lovely and comfortable, you should always keep in mind that the Colosseum remains crowded from July to August. If you visit during this time, you may face extended wait times and lines.

Reach The Destination Before 8:30 AM

First of all, book your tickets in advance and another important thing to keep in mind is you should try to visit the place before 8:30 AM. Line can start forming from 7 AM and if you arrive late or at 8:30 AM, then you will have to wait in a very long queue. So, arrive at 7:30 and grab a spot.

Free Entry on Sunday

To enter the Colosseum, you must carry a valid ticket. However, you can enjoy a free entry to the Colosseum during every month's first Sunday. If you are visiting without any guided or private tour, then it can take hours to get an entry. So, we would suggest you book a tour to make the process hassle-free. Many service providers offer discounts and you can book a tour package under your budget.

5 Conclusion

If you try and plan perfectly, then you may be able to visit the Colosseum on your own. However, if you are travelling with your family and don't want to deal with the long lines to get your entry, you can choose to book a guided Colosseum tour. While you can book such tours from the Colosseum official website, you can also contact Colosseum official tour partners such as Rome Colosseum Tour for this. With them, you will enjoy an unforgettable experience. When you book a guided tour, you will also enjoy access to the restricted areas. Visit their official website now for more information and book your ticket.

Roma

Thank You

Piazza del Colosseo, 1, 00184, Roma RM, Italy

+39 3386672861

www.romecolosseumtour.com

info@tourinrome.com

