5. Recessed Lighting

Recessed lighting, also known as can lights or downlights, is installed into the ceiling, providing a sleek and unobtrusive lighting solution. These lights are perfect for creating a clean and modern look while offering ample illumination.

6. Track Lighting

Track lighting consists of multiple light fixtures attached to a single track. This type of lighting is highly adjustable, allowing you to direct light where it's needed most. It's an excellent choice for highlighting artwork or architectural features in your living room.

7. Semi-Flush Mount Ceiling Lights

Semi-flush mount ceiling lights hang slightly below the ceiling, offering a balance between flush mount and pendant lights. They are suitable for rooms with medium-height ceilings and come in various designs to match your decor.

8. Drum Shade Ceiling Lights

Drum shade ceiling lights feature a cylindrical shade that diffuses light evenly. These lights are available in various materials, including fabric, metal, and glass. They add a touch of elegance and warmth to your living room.

9. Sputnik Chandeliers

Sputnik chandeliers are inspired by mid-century modern design and feature multiple arms extending from a central sphere. These lights are perfect for adding a retro yet contemporary touch to your living room.

10. Smart Ceiling Lights

Smart ceiling lights offer advanced features such as remote control, color-changing options, and integration with smart home systems. These lights provide convenience and customization, allowing you to create the perfect ambiance for any occasion.

Conclusion
