For nature lovers and adventure seekers, Dodhpathri and Yusmarg offer both peace and thrill with their stunning scenery, trekking trails, and picturesque meadows.

Exploring Dodhpathri: The Valley of Milk

Dodhpathri, meaning "Valley of Milk," is about 40 kilometers from Srinagar and is named for its pristine, milky-white streams. Set amidst pine-covered mountains and vibrant wildflowers, this tranquil meadow is perfect for those looking to escape into nature. Dodhpathri offers an ideal location for a picnic or a quiet day with loved ones, surrounded by captivating natural beauty.

Visitors to Dodhpathri can enjoy activities such as pony rides, trekking, and camping, making it a perfect destination for families, couples, and solo travelers alike. With Peacock Holidays, you'll be guided through the valley's most scenic spots, ensuring you don't miss any of its natural wonders. Our knowledgeable guides will enrich your experience, sharing insights into the local flora, fauna, and folklore associated with Dodhpathri.

Discovering Yusmarg: The Meadow of Jesus

Yusmarg, located approximately 47 kilometers from Srinagar, is another breathtaking valley and is often referred to as the "Meadow of Jesus." This quiet and beautiful destination is ideal for peaceful retreats and leisurely exploration. The tranquil waters of the Doodganga River, which flows through Yusmarg, are perfect for fishing, while the expansive meadows provide space for relaxation or a leisurely stroll.

For adventure seekers, Yusmarg also offers trekking trails that lead to nearby lakes and peaks, including the majestic Sunset Peak. The dense forests and stunning backdrops make it a popular spot for photography, giving travelers a chance to capture Kashmir's natural beauty. With Peacock Holidays, you can indulge in Yusmarg's offerings with carefully curated packages and local guides who understand the hidden treasures of this area.
